How To Pay Less and Miss the Crowds

Great News!

When you enjoy travel as much as we do, it can be hard to choose a destination from your Bucket List, let alone figure out when to go.

There is a window of travel opportunity we look for between the peak season and low season that minimizes our costs and maximizes our experience. It's known as "shoulder season."

This sweet spot offers better travel rates and fewer crowds with the benefit of pleasant weather conditions. We've had very good results everywhere from the Bahamas Out Islands to Italy's Amalfi Coast. In fact, it's our favorite time to travel.

So, here's the great news. We've put together this useful Month-by-Month Destination Guide that does the hard work for you. It lists our picks for the shoulder season of thirty-six (yes, 36!) destinations so you can save money and maximize your travel plans, too.

Whether you are dreaming of some beachy destination, the English countryside, or a bustling city, we hope this guide brings you one step closer to making your travel dreams a reality.

Hi! I'm Jackie Gately from Enjoy Travel Life.

I'm a seasoned traveler and empty-nester embarking on new adventures. I love photography, travel blogging, and designing creative travel products at Enjoy Travel Life.

Some of my favorite things include going off the beaten path, floating peacefully in crystal clear water, enjoying local, wholesome flavors and regional drinks, and chasing the sunset with my camera. It's experiential learning at it's best, and I thrive on it.

I welcome you to follow my travels at enjoytravellife.com and on social media.

And feel free to email me directly with your feedback or travel questions at:
